I've enjoyed my time here at Lineo, but it seems that time has come to an end. That is really too bad -- I've really enjoyed watching Lineo grow and I'm sad that I'm going to miss, as Paul Harvey would say, the rest of the story. Please make sure it has a happy ending (or preferably, no ending at all).

If you have any busybox/tinylogin/uClibc questions or find you need enhancements or bugfixes, I'll be happy to send you my hourly rates. ;-)
